Travel to Berlin :

Airport

Do you know that Berlin has already 2 working airports ? We are not depending on the never ending story of the BER Airport.

Berlin Tegel and Berlin Schönefeld offer several European connections all over Europe.

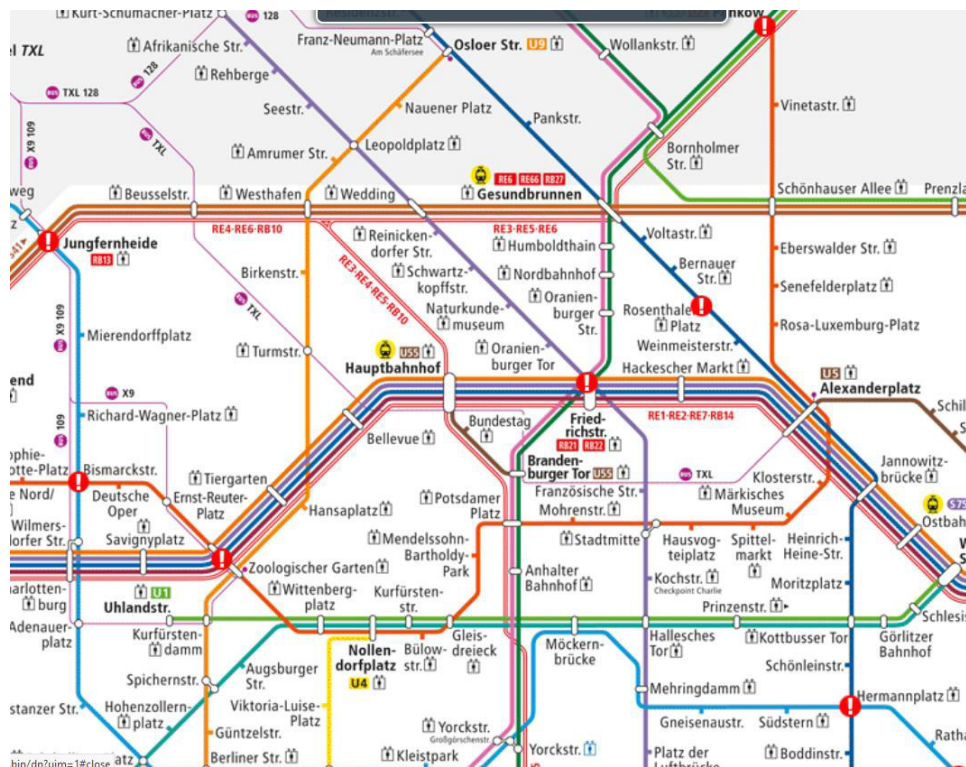

Car

Both Bowling Centers have parking space. BC Schillerpark has free parking, Neue City Bowling Hasenheide parking will cost a little fee (ask at the Bowling Center for a reduced rate).

Railway

The new Central Station (Hauptbahnhof) is right in the middle of the city and you can change directly to the U Bahn (Metro/ Underground).

Bowling Centers :

Shuttle / Public Transport :

There will be no bus shuttle between the Bowling centers, because the very busy traffic in Berlin would cause a lot of delays in the schedule. Both Bowling centers are in a very short walking distance to the next U-Bahn (Metro/ Underground). It will take you 30 minutes, to travel from one center to the other, with only one change in U-Bahnhof Mehringdamm.

Explore Berlin by bus 100

Berlins favourite bus line

BUS TOURS > INDIVIDUAL CITY SIGHTSEEING TOURS BERLIN

A hop on/hop off bus tour doesn't always have to cost a lot of money. A really simple way to make your own sightseeing tour is to combine a tip on the number 100 bus with a day ticket or the Berlin Welcome Card. This way, you can get out whenever you like for the most important attractions, or just stay in the bus and enjoy looking at them in passing. The number 100 bus route was created after the reunification of Germany as the first bus route connecting East and West Berlin thus linking so many of the sightseeing attractions that Berlin has to offer.

The best seat on the No. 100 bus — for both kids and adults — is naturally at the front on the upper deck, right over the bus driver. There you'll not only get a panoramic view through the enormous windows as you roll past the city's attractions, you'll also feel as if you're driving the bus yourself, right through the centre of Berlin. By the way, up to 3 children between the age of 6 and 14 can also travel free on their parents' ticket.

And when the bus stops, that's also a bit of an adventure. Do they ever tilt over?, ask the youngsters, wide-eyed with concern. You can spot the local Berlin residents by their indifferent expressions when these situations occur.
